JPD Tax Services Joins Jacie's Kids as a Corporate Sponsor

October 28, 2022 - Jacies Kids, a Long Island based charity benefiting local children and their families that are fighting childhood cancers, is thrilled to announce it has added JPD Tax Services as a brand new Corporate Sponsor. In this role, JPD Tax Services will help Jacie's Kids raise money for LI kids with cancer.

JPD Tax Services Inc. provides a wide range of tax services and tax planning to individuals, small business owners, self-employed individuals, retired individuals, estates and trusts. They aim to provide the best services at a fair price while providing quality customer service and building relationships and pride themselves on being reliable, honest professionals.

On behalf of the organization, Paula Barba shares her interest in Jacie's Kids and said, "We very much appreciate the work that Jacie's Kids is doing in little ways to make big things possible for LI children battling cancer. We are thrilled to help the charity and look forward to different ways we can help promote awareness."

Beatrice Haas, President of Jacie's Kids adds, "The power of networking is alive and well on Long Island and I am thrilled that JPD Tax Services has decided to become a corporate sponsor. We look forward to promoting their firm on our website and building momentum for a great holiday season for our kids."

In the past, money from corporate sponsors and individual donors has enabled the charity to help a variety of children in a variety of circumstances. Money raised by the charity is targeted for local Long Island children and their families as well as donated in the form of checks to area children cancer centers such as Good Samaritan, Stony Brook, and Memorial Sloan Kettering.

JPD Tax Services encourages other local businesses to find out more about Jacie's Kids and to consider becoming a corporate sponsor. Paula Barba adds, "A simple yearly donation of $250 can mean so much for the kids and their families. It makes us feel good to give."

All corporate sponsors receive a variety of benefits including a full year of exposure on the Jacie's Kids website, a feature in their newsletter and other networking and promotional benefits.

Collaborating with Jacie's Kids and becoming a corporate sponsor is a win-win for all! The Corporate Benefits for sponsorship can be found here, and the application for sponsorship can be requested at info@jacieskids.org.
